Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK) session

Thursday, Sept. 23, Noon to 1 p.m.

On Aug. 1, PMI released the 7th edition of the PMBOK (Project Management Body of Knowledge) Guide. The new edition is a significant change from its predecessors moving from a process-based to a principle-based guide. Alumni and students are invited to join as Bill Johnson, director of the project management program, provides an overview of the new guide, how it has changed, and the implications of these changes.

A Novel Reads Alumni Book Club Conversation

Thursday, Oct. 21, 7 p.m.

We will be reading and discussing "The Greatest Generation" by Tom Brokaw. This book profiles those who grew up in the United States during the Great Depression and then went on to fight in World War II as well as those whose productivity at the home front during World War II made a contribution to the war effort.
