Lasallian Day of Service - Support this annual effort to better our communities

The Alumni Association is offering a hybrid model of in-person service sites and drop-off donation sites for Lasallian Day of Service 2021. Thanks to the efforts of our alumni board members, we can share volunteer and donation information in several specific regions. No matter where you are located, you can do service at your favorite charity or donate clothing, food, or other items to help your communities.

Alumni Conversations: M.A. in Organizational Leadership

Thursday, Sept. 30, 7 p.m.

A series of virtual discussions with graduate and professional program alumni sharing perspectives about their Saint Mary's education, their career, and more. The program's purpose is to connect graduate and professional program current and prospective students, alumni, faculty, and staff through thought-provoking insights and experiences. This month, we will focus on the Organizational Leadership program and feature alumna Danielle Teal.

A Novel Reads Alumni Book Club Conversation

Thursday, Oct. 21, 7 p.m.

We will be reading and discussing "The Greatest Generation" by Tom Brokaw. This book profiles those who grew up in the United States during the Great Depression and then went on to fight in World War II as well as those whose productivity at the home front during World War II made a contribution to the war effort.

Lasallian Day of Service - Oct. 16 - Oct. 23

We encourage alumni (no matter your location) to participate in this annual event dedicated to improving our community and making a difference. The Alumni Association has developed a hybrid approach developing both in-person service sites and donation drop-off sites in the Chicago, Twin Cities, Rochester, Winona, and Milwaukee regions. If you live outside those regions, we also encourage you to participate by assisting your favorite charity. Together and by association, let's make a difference on Lasallian Day of Service 2021

Men's Hockey vs. Lake Forest (IL) Reception and Game

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 29-30

The Saint Mary's men's hockey team will be traveling to the Chicago area during the weekend of Oct. 29-30. We encourage our Chicago-area alumni to come and support the team as they take on the Lake Forest Foresters. We will be hosting an alumni reception before Saturday's game.
